

Barista Wanted

Holy Grounds Coffee & Books is located in the heart of downtown Austin. Situated in the historic St. David's Episcopal Church, we serve an eclectic clientele Sunday through Friday. Our customers vary from office professionals to visiting tourists to church parishioners.

We are currently looking for a high energy, upbeat baristas to provide excellent customer service, produce high quality beverages and food, and assist in selling books and gifts in our quirky downtown coffee shop. Holy Grounds baristas work approximately 15 hours a week, more or less depending on level of business. Availability on Sundays, early mornings, and some holidays required. Must have high school diploma. Coffee shop experience preferred but not required. Successful candidates will possess the following skills and abilities:

1. Strong interpersonal and rapport-building skills
2. Capable of utilizing coffee and kitchen equipment. Ability to make gourmet hot and cold coffee drinks, tea and other beverages. Ability to produce basic food menu items.
3. Able to take initiative and follow instructions.
4. Able to multi-task and work productively with a positive attitude during periods of fast-paced intensity as well as during periods of quiet.
5. Capable of learning and utilizing Point of Sale software as well as other financial software.
6. Must be customer service-oriented, able to focus on tasks, and able to work as part of a team.

Learn more about us at our website, <http://www.holygroundsaustin.com/>

Please email a cover letter and resume to holygrounds@stdave.org. Phone inquiries will not be considered.