

Circle of Prayer for City of Austin
St. David's Episcopal Church - Outreach Ministries
(Inspired by Metro Richmond at Prayer)

Everyday:

For the healing of Greater Austin and Central Texas; for the sick; for the welfare of all our citizens; for the establishment of God's order in our community. Our world. Our nation. Our President (Joe), Congress, and the Supreme Court. For the St. David's community. For the Diocese of Texas.

Monday:

Our citizens who live in the City of Austin, our Mayor (Steve), City Manager (Spencer), City Council, and School Board. Non-profit organizations and charities. For St. David's Episcopal Day School. All AISD schools: students, teachers, and staff. Day care centers. All who suffer from addiction, dependency, and co-dependency. The members, staff, and clergy of St. David's Episcopal. The Next to New shop and its volunteers.

Tuesday:

Our citizens who live in Bastrop County, the County Officials, and School District Board. All youth. Indigenous peoples in Greater Austin. The print and broadcast media in our region. The churches of Austin: members and clergy. All who live in poverty. All who suffer from mental illness. All who work to protect God's creation. For Café Divine Outreach and Foundation Communities' Supper Club.

Wednesday:

The Governor of Texas (Greg), the Texas Legislature, and all who work in State government. Immigrants and refugees in Greater Austin. All who work in businesses which provide services to others. All who work in construction. Hospitals and nursing homes: patients, residents, and staff; all who provide health care. Victims of violent crime; all who commit violent crime. All senior citizens. For Laundry Love and Knitting for Those in Need.

Thursday:

Our citizens who live in Downtown and East Austin. All who work in banks and finance; all making financial decisions for Greater Austin. Prisoners and staff at Travis County Jail. Migrant detainees at Hutto Detention Facility. All who are unemployed or underemployed. All public servants. All working for racial justice. For the Beloved Community at St. David's. For our Go and Do Likewise ministry and Interfaith Action of Central Texas.

Friday:

Our citizens who live in Caldwell and Hays counties, the County Officials, and School Boards. All who work in the manufacturing industry in Greater Austin. The police, fire, and rescue workers. The courts. All young people. All who hurt, need inner healing, or are unable to love. For the Ramp Build Team and the Environmental Guild. Our beehives at Barking Dog Ranch.

Saturday:

Our citizens who live in Travis and Williamson counties, the County Officials, and School Boards. All who work in retail trade in Greater Austin, and those who own our businesses. Counselors and spiritual directors. The clients and staff of Trinity Center. The spiritual, emotional and physical needs of the poor and homeless in Austin. All victims of abuse; all perpetrators of abuse. Episcopal Relief and Development and Episcopal Migration Ministries.

Sunday:

Our citizens who live in the Pflugerville, Round Rock, and San Marcos. An end to racism and racial prejudice. All places of prayer or worship: churches, mosques, and synagogues. Universities, colleges, and technical schools in Austin. For seminaries and theological schools. All who seek God.
